IN MEMORIAM

Clearing House Association of Richmond, Va., October 12, 1915.

John S. Ellett.
Whereas, the Clearing House Association of Richmond has been called, for the record of the time in the year 1915, to record its record in the year 1915, to record its record of one of its leading financial institutions, it should impress upon us how frail is the tenure of human life. On no occasion have we felt more deeply our loss than in the death of our late associate, JOHN S. ELLETT.

It was his fortune, in a long and eventful life, to be charged with great trusts and responsibilities, and in all vicissitudes and trials his splendid character rose ever superior to the occasion, and he discharged those duties as a true, brave and loyal man. As a youth, he entered the Confederate army and won position and command in his battery. As a merchant, he guided and built up many enterprises of great moment to this city. As a bank officer, he grew with his bank from a small beginning to one of our largest and most influential financial institutions, of which it was his watchful and zealous care to always keep upon the highest moral plane. As a soldier, merchant, bank officer, he was a man of great ability, a gentleman and Christian he was scrupulously high in his ideas and humble in his intercourse with his fellow-men.
Resolved, That the Clearing House Association hereby record his services at his death and directs that this record be spread upon its minutes.
Resolved, That a copy be sent to his family and published in the daily papers.

JOHN B. PURCELL,
WM. H. PALMER,
RICHARD H. SMITH,
Committee.
